Remuneration band	Field Staff Collective

Our purpose

The Ministry of Education is the Government’s lead advisor on the education system, shaping direction for education agencies and providers. The Ministry delivers policies and services focused on its leadership role in the education sector. This includes coordination with other sector and government agencies and forums to achieve shared goals through cross sector work programmes and contribution to broader government goals.

The overarching outcome to which the Ministry contributes is to build a world-leading education system that equips all New Zealanders with the knowledge, skills and values to be successful citizens in the 21st century and shapes, leverages and influences Māori enjoying education success as Māori.

Group/unit description

Learning Support is charged with leading the sector in ensuring that children with special education needs achieve their full potential through education. The national office ensures that policy advice, system design, service provision and resourcing each work effectively. The regional and local offices provide a wide range of services and support both directly and indirectly to children and young people with special education and developmental needs.

Learning Support works closely with parents, families/whānau, caregivers, iwi, Maori, Pasifika and other communities, schools, early childhood educators and agencies. Together with the Ministry’s regional education offices, Learning Support supports access to a continuum of services available to children with diverse needs.

Our Promise

Learning Support’s service promise clearly sets out what people can expect from us, and what we expect from each other. To work for Learning Support means being committed to this promise and to delivering it every day, in all our work.

Our Promise:

Every day, children will learn and succeed because of the work we do.

We will:

- value, respect and treat you fairly
- listen and understand you
- together, find what works
- make it easy for you to work with us
- do what we say we will do in a timely manner.

Position purpose

The vision for Learning Support (LS) is that every child and young person will have access to learning opportunities that maximise their learning, promote social inclusion and facilitate smooth transition through to life-long learning.

The purpose of the physiotherapist is to provide effective, efficient and equitable physiotherapy services in accordance with the goals, objectives and policies of the Ministry of Education.

Nature and scope

Education is a specialised area of physiotherapy practice that requires the practitioner to use their knowledge of normal human development and the neuro-musculo-skeletal system to provide advice and guidance to children and young people identified as having special education needs.

The physiotherapist works to provide educationally relevant services to children and young people with special education needs within the context of the New Zealand special education legislative framework and the New Zealand curriculum framework.

Through a collaborative process the physiotherapist assesses, develops and implements integrated management of the student's physical needs in inclusive environments. The aim of these interventions is to facilitate the removal of barriers to learning and participation.

The physiotherapist, while working individually, plays an integral role in Learning Support teams and provides advice to learners, their families, special and regular educators, school management, and community groups on programme development and systems changes.
